The screenshot displays a user interface for managing subscriptions. At the top, the heading "My Subscriptions" is visible. Below it, a message states "Your subscription is currently paused". A red button labeled "Re - Activate Now" with a right-pointing arrow is circled in yellow. To the right of this button is a small black square icon with a white arrow pointing up. Below the message, there is a section for "1 item(s) | Pickup" and a link to "order history" with the text "Looking for a different order? Be sure to check your order history!". A red error banner below this section reads "There was an error retrieving the cart for schedule '13'. Error: 403 Forbidden". At the bottom, a subscription item is shown with a small image of a plant, the text "Recurring Plan", and a quantity selector set to "1".
